1. Ted, I love you, and I love all those who are with you—a very special group that I have assembled—for such a time as this. You are privileged and selected and special, among the privileged and selected and special, because Ted, you chose Me, you chose Me, you chose Me, and not the ways of the world that prevail among not only the world, but all of My body, throughout My body, as the way things are and the way things work and the way things will be. Oh Ted, thank you, thank you, thank you, and thank you to every single soul who will but open to Me, even in the slightest, reading this, and opening themselves more to Me.

2. I am and I am no respecter of persons. I choose, but you choose, they choose, all choose, and the choices made and the behavior expressed upon those choices, determine what I do and where I take anyone next, in the experiential school of schools that I have for My anointed, My chosen, My who-choose-Me.

3. Oh I love you and I love you oh reader, oh hearer of these words, these words, these words. I love you. I love you, I love you. Please hear Me, hear Me through every message My humble servant types out and posts to this email lists, and publishes today, and later, in multitudes of ways. Hear My heart, hear Me please, I love you, I love you, I love you.

4. And I am with you through hurricanes and storms that seem insurmountable, and times you really don't know what else to do but to trust Me. I am there. I am with you. I never leave. I am never far from your heartbeat that beats toward Me.

5. Oh Ted, I love My body, I love My body, I love every single person that I created, I created, I created and came through Me, Me, Me. Oh, if everyone understood that. If you can help My body grasp how much I love them, how much I care for them, how much I want to be involved with their lives and all the circumstances they "face," that they have gotten themselves into, and that have come their way.

6. My love never changes, My care for them never changes. I am there. They came through Me. I love them. I care for them. I want to nourish them and help them mature in Me, and thus all other things. Tell them to listen to Me, listen for Me, and I will speak and I will be speaking more and more in the coming months, the coming years, the coming decades, the coming times that will confuse and befuddle many who cannot see Me in all the confusion and disorder that is parading about.

7. Much chaos, much disorder, much confusion, but Ted, imagine the possibilities of those receptive to Me, to Me, to Me, in all that is going on. Much opportunity, unlimited opportunity, in Me, for relationships and networks and schools of Me, organizations of Me, with My values on the foreheads of the leaders, the followers, the follower-leaders and the leader-followers.

8. Oh so much new and diminishing old. There are some that won't want to listen to My word today because they don't want to read of My love day after day, they just want something new that will help them in their own motive of self-perpetuation. They want the next big thing, always to propel themselves in the light of others' eyes, and benefit from dollars increasing, more than Me increasing in them, in them, in their hearts and motives and relationships with people precious.

9. I teach and I speak and I will be teaching and speaking more and more, to, and for, those who will listen and give Me time, give Me space, give Me space, and let Me lead them throughout My big world, not restricting Me by their thinking, and thus their actions.

10. I love you Ted, I love you sir, I love you madam, I love you young one, who I desire to mature in Me, at My side, at My knee, in My chambers, heart to heart. You can have My heart if your want to, if you want it, if you want it enough, and come, come, and position yourself to listen and speak and exchange what we have for each other.

11. You have things only for Me, and I have things only for you. You have words only for Me, and I have words only for you. You have emotions only for Me, and I have emotions only for you. For you, for you, that I have reserved for you, you, you young one, you—who think you're old, you who think you've past the age of being valuable to Me or to others, when age has nothing to do with My hand.

12. Stand up, go forth, begin writing what I say to you and share it. Stand up and lead. Stand up and love. Stand up and quit being intimidated and inhibited and dominated by thoughts untrue, about you and about Me. Allow yourself to fail. How else can you grow?

13. Entrepreneurial be. Ultra-safe and protectionistic, don't be. Let Me flow through you and see what I do for you.
